

Author Discussion/Interview Questions

1. Where did you get the idea to write Resumes for Children – 17 Years Old and Under?
2. Please explain why you have geared the book toward parents even though the title says Resumes for Children - 17 Years Old and Under?
3. What are the benefits of a child having a resume/CAB (Child Activity Brief)?
4. A resume/CAB for a child is a topic that people don't hear much about. What kind of responses do you encounter?
5. What success stories can you give from children having resumes/CABs?
6. What advantages or disadvantages did you have as a child that contributed to the writing of Resumes for Children – 17 Years Old and Under?
7. What activities did you participate in as a child and does any one resume/CAB in your book resemble those activities in your childhood?
8. The children's activities in Resumes for Children – 17 Years Old and Under are wonderful and creative. What kind of research did you do to obtain certain information? [e.g., FAA (Federal Aviation Administration) 3rd Class Medical Certificate, Open Water SCUBA Certification]
9. Why do you think the majority of parents wait until a child's junior or senior year in high school to develop that child's resume/CAB?
10. Can you provide some advice to parents on how to begin to develop a resume/CAB for their children?
11. Should parents "make" children participate in certain activities in order to develop a good resume?
12. Can you offer parents budget friendly activities for children to participate in in order to develop a good resume?
13. How did your book reach the hands of teachers and students at some Atlanta, GA public and private schools, and are you reaching out to other school systems?
14. Do you offer any kind of assistance to parents as far as putting together their children's resumes?
15. What's next on your agenda as far as new projects?